

Sabhal Mòr Ostaig

Isle of Skye

Trad Beats

Step Dance

Beat-Boxing

Body Percussion

Gaelic Mouth Music

Tutors: Griogair Labhruidh, Lewis MacRae,
Sophie Stephenson, Mairi Britton and Eilidh Munro

Riffs & Rhythms

Collaborative workshop with Shooglenifty

28th & 29th November 2015

Weekend of workhops: £35 (£30 early bird)

Age 14 - 25

Supported by the Highland Youth
Arts Hub 'Time to Shine' Fund.

To book a place

Email: sophie@sophabulous.co.uk

Phone: 07783433807

www.sophabulous.co.uk/tradbeats

TradBeats

TradBeats is youth music and dance festival exploring rhythmical links between Gaelic mouth music, step dance, beat-boxing and body percussion with group sessions for collaboration and arrangement.

Leading the workshops are Gaelic singers Griogair Labhraidh and Eilidh Munro, step dancers Sophie Stephenson and Mairi Britton and beatboxer Lewis Macrae. There will also be a riffs and rhythms workshop led by trad fusion group Shooglenifty. On the Saturday evening there is a concert hosted by SEALL featuring Shooglenifty along with the TradBeats tutors.

Dates: Saturday 28th & Sunday 29th November 2015
Location: Sabhal Mòr Ostaig, Isle of Skye
Weekend of workshops: £35 (£30 early bird)
Full details available at: www.sophabulous.co.uk/tradbeats

TradBeats is supported by the 'Time to Shine' fund through the Highland Youth Arts Hub's 'Creative in Your Community' scheme. For more info about the fund please email stacey.toner@highlandyouthartshub.org

Schedule

Saturday workshops: 10am – 4.30pm

Saturday evening concert: Shooglenifty + TradBeats
The concert is a separate event hosted by SEALL. To book tickets visit www.seall.co.uk

Sunday workshops: 10am – 4.30pm

TradBeats is not responsible for supervision out with the workshop times and therefor under 18s must be accompanied by a parent/guardian.

Accommodation

If you are travelling from afar then there is accommodation at the Flora MacDonald Hostel which is within 15 mins walking distance from the college and you can book with them directly. The hostel accommodation costs £16 per person per night. See their website for more details. (N.B. They are closed between 5th - 21st October and therefor will not be able to process any bookings during this time) <http://www.skye-hostel.co.uk>

Travel Options

Train/bus: Glasgow – Mallaig; Ferry: Mallaig - Armadale
Citylink bus: Glasgow – Broadford; Stagecoach bus: Broadford - Sabhal Mòr Ostaig

Ferry timetable: <https://www.calmac.co.uk>
Train times: <http://www.scotrail.co.uk>
Bus times: <http://www.citylink.co.uk>
<https://www.stagecoachbus.com/default.aspx>

TradBeats Application Form

Name
Age
Address
Email address
Phone number

Music/dance experience (list here if you play any instruments)

N.B. Students don't need an instrument/musical experience to take part in the workshops however if you play an instrument then please bring it along for the Riffs & Rhythms workshop with Shooglenifty on the Sunday.

Do you live locally or are you travelling from afar for the festival? (see accommodation section above for information about where to stay)

How did you hear about TradBeats?

Please fill out this form and send to sophie@sophabulous.co.uk. If you have a problem editing the form then just send the required information in a plain text email.

For more information or if you have any questions then please get in touch on 07783433807.

Mòran taing!